1. Purpose

This document provides a range of considerations aimed at bolstering and informing third party arrangements (TPA) that Southern Cross University (SCU) may enter into, to ensure Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021 (HES Framework), standards are demonstrably met, monitored and risks relating to TPAs mitigated through stringent control measures.

The University aims to enter into and maintain rewarding partnerships that are beneficial to staff, students and the University. This is achieved by maintaining a focus on academic quality and quality assurance, student experience and staff expertise. At all times, and as articulated in the steps in this document, we adopt a rigorous assessment and ongoing monitoring of the regulatory environment, financial profile and capacity and capability of our partner organisations.

2. Regulatory Risk Framework

The University's approach to ensuring regulatory alignment and mitigating regulatory risk related to TPAs occurs throughout the life-cycle of a partnership including the establishment process (initiation, discovery, due diligence, legal agreement, implementation and onboarding); and maintenance process (monitoring and reporting, strategic review; and renewal). The steps are detailed at 5. TPA Regulatory Accountability Matrix and only occur once concept is endorsed through the Educational Partnerships Oversight Committee.

3. The Higher Education Standards Framework (HESF) and TEQSA

Direct reference to third party arrangements in the HESF is restricted to standard 5.4, Delivery with Other Parties. There are a range of corporate and academic governance standards that require consideration when establishing TPA arrangements including Transnational Education (TNE) in addition to standards governing educational capacity. This is detailed in the table below.

Table 1 | Key HESF clauses relevant to TPA

Standard	Element
5.4 Delivery with Other Parties	2. When a course of study, any parts of a course of study, or research training are delivered through arrangements with another party(ies), whether in Australia or overseas, the registered higher education provider remains accountable for the course of study and verifies continuing compliance of the course of study with the standards in the Higher Education Standards Framework that relate to the specific arrangement.
Corporate and Academic Governance
6.1 Corporate governance	1. There is a formally constituted governing body, which includes independent members, that exercises competent governance oversight of and is accountable for all of the higher education provider's operations in or from Australia, including accountability for the award of

Standard	Element
	higher education qualifications, for continuing to meet the requirements of the Higher Education Standards Framework and for the provider's representation of itself. 4. The governing body takes steps to develop and maintain an institutional environment in which freedom of speech and academic freedom are upheld and protected, students and staff are treated equitably, the wellbeing of students and staff is fostered, informed decision making by students is supported and students have opportunities to participate in the deliberative and decision making processes of the higher education provider.
6.2 Corporate Monitoring and Accountability	a. the governing body and the entity comply with the requirements of the legislation under which the provider is established, recognised or incorporated, any other legislative requirements and the entity's constitution or equivalent b. the provider's future directions in higher education have been determined, realistic performance targets have been established, progress against targets is monitored and action is taken to correct underperformance c. the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the entity are monitored regularly and understood, financial reporting is materially accurate, financial management meets Australian accounting standards, effective financial safeguards and controls are operating and financial statements are audited independently by a qualified auditor against Australian accounting and auditing standards e. risks to higher education operations have been identified and material risks are being managed and mitigated effectively h. qualifications are awarded legitimately i. there are credible business continuity plans... j. the occurrence and nature of formal complaints, allegations of misconduct, breaches of academic or research integrity and critical incidents are monitored and action is taken to address underlying causes,
6.3 Academic governance	1. Processes and structures are established and responsibilities are assigned that collectively: a. achieve effective academic oversight of the quality of teaching, learning, research and research training b. set and monitor institutional benchmarks for academic quality and outcomes c. establish and maintain academic leadership at an institutional level, consistent with the types and levels of higher education offered, and d. provide competent advice to the corporate governing body and management on academic matters, including advice on academic outcomes, policies and practices.
4.1 Research	4.1.1 Research and its associated activities are conducted in accordance with a research policy framework that is designed to achieve:

	c. successful management of research partnerships
Capacity and Capability
1.3 Orientation and Progression	1. Successful transition into courses of study is achieved through orientation programs that are tailored to the needs of student cohorts and include specific consideration for international students adjusting to living and studying in Australia. Specific strategies support transition, including: a. assessing the needs and preparedness of individual students and cohorts b. undertaking early assessment or review that provides formative feedback on academic progress and is able to identify needs for additional support, and c. providing access to informed advice and timely referral to academic or other support. 4. Processes that identify students at risk of unsatisfactory progress and provide specific support are implemented across all courses of study.
2.1 Facilities and Infrastructure	1. Facilities, including facilities where external placements are undertaken, are fit for their educational and research purposes, and accommodate the numbers and educational and research activities of the students and staff who use them. 2. Secure access to electronic information and adequate electronic communication services is available continuously (allowing for reasonable outages for maintenance) to students and staff during periods of authorised access, except for locations and circumstances that are not under the direct control of the provider. 3. The learning environment, whether physical, virtual or blended, and associated learning activities support academic interactions among students outside of formal teaching.
2.2 Diversity and Equity	2.2.3 Participation, progress, and completion by identified student subgroups are monitored and the findings are used to inform admission policies and improvement of teaching, learning and support strategies for those subgroups.
2.3 Wellbeing and Safety	1. All students are advised of the actions they can take, the staff they may contact and the support services that are accessible if their personal circumstances are having an adverse effect on their education. 2. Timely, accurate advice on access to personal support services is available, including for access to emergency services, health services, counselling, legal advice, advocacy, and accommodation and welfare services. 3. The nature and extent of support services that are available for students are informed by the needs of student cohorts, including mental health, disability and wellbeing needs.

	4. A safe environment is promoted and fostered, including by advising students and staff on actions they can take to enhance safety and security on campus and online.
3.2 Staffing	1. The staffing complement for each course of study is sufficient to meet the educational, academic support and administrative needs of student cohorts undertaking the course. 2. The academic staffing profile for each course of study provides the level and extent of academic oversight and teaching capacity needed to lead students in intellectual inquiry suited to the nature and level of expected learning outcomes. 3. Staff with responsibilities for academic oversight and those with teaching and supervisory roles in courses or units of study are equipped for their roles, including having: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. knowledge of contemporary developments in the discipline or field, which is informed by continuing scholarship or research or advances in practice</li> <li>b. skills in contemporary teaching, learning and assessment principles relevant to the discipline, their role, modes of delivery and the needs of particular student cohorts, and</li> <li>c. a qualification in a relevant discipline at least one level higher than is awarded for the course of study, or equivalent relevant academic or professional or practice-based experience and expertise, except for staff supervising doctoral degrees having a doctoral degree or equivalent research experience.</li> </ul> 4. Teachers who teach specialised components of a course of study, such as experienced practitioners and teachers undergoing training, who may not fully meet the standard for knowledge, skills and qualification or experience required for teaching or supervision (3.2.3) have their teaching guided and overseen by staff who meet the standard. 5. Teaching staff are accessible to students seeking individual assistance with their studies, at a level consistent with the learning needs of the student cohort.
3.3 Learning Resources and Educational Support	1. The learning resources, such as library collections and services, creative works, notes, laboratory facilities, studio sessions, simulations and software, that are specified or recommended for a course of study, relate directly to the learning outcomes, are up to date and, where supplied as part of a course of study, are accessible when needed by students. 2. Where learning resources are part of an electronic learning management system, all users have timely access to the system and training is available in use of the system. 3. Access to learning resources does not present unexpected barriers, costs or technology requirements for students, including for students with special needs and those who study off campus.

	4. Students have access to learning support services that are consistent with the requirements of their course of study, their mode of study and the learning needs of student cohorts, including arrangements for supporting and maintaining contact with students who are off campus.
7.1 Representation	1. Representation of the higher education provider, its educational offerings and charges, whether directly or through agents or other parties, is accurate and not misleading.

To assist determine the applicability of the HESF in relation to TNE arrangements, and how to apply the HESF, TEQSA released a Transnational Education Toolkit<sup>1</sup> (TNE Toolkit) in 2022. This provides definitions and a range of considerations for Australian higher education providers, including universities. This is considered in the next section.

4. Transnational Education (TNE)

There are three main types of Transnational Education arrangements that the University enters into. TEQSA defines these three main TNE arrangements as:

Articulation arrangements

Articulation arrangements are those between two institutions that allow students to undertake part of their studies in their home country (offshore) followed by an equivalent period of study in Australia to complete the requirements of a single award. Most commonly, articulation arrangements are delivered as 2 years at the home campus plus 2 years at the host campus in Australia (TEQSA, 2022, TNE Toolkit p. 27)

Third party arrangements

Where a higher education institution has, or intends to have, aspects of a course of study carried out by a partner, agent or third-party arrangement, these arrangements may include:

- Partnerships with other institutions, higher education institutions, or entities
- The formation of joint ventures or special purpose companies
- Sub-contracting of services
- Franchising arrangements (TEQSA, 2022, TNE Toolkit p. 27)

Joint Awards

TEQSA defines joint awards as those that ‘involve a single course of study arranged and delivered jointly by two or more institutions that leads to the award of a single qualification that is recognised within the Australian Qualifications Framework and is typically conferred jointly by the institutions involved’ (TEQSA, 2022, TNE Toolkit p. 27)

This risk profile and contractual requirements of these difference arrangements differ.

For example, due to an onshore component, articulation arrangements need to consider home country visa-risk and visa implications as a potential barrier to successful operation of the arrangement. Third-party arrangements require a strong emphasis on end-to-end quality assurance and oversight of the partner inclusive of learning outcomes and award issuance. Joint awards may include elements of articulation and third-party arrangements.

5. Onshore educational collaborations

Where a third party arrangement is established with an onshore (Australian) educational collaboration partner who will deliver higher education to international student visa holders, the provider's capacity to comply with the standards under the ESOS Act, in particular, the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 (National Code) should also be assessed prior to entering into, or continuing an educational partnership.
