Part F - Loan Applications

(13) Loan applications may only be made in the session in which there is a demonstrated enrolment and no earlier than the end of the previous session in which there is no enrolment.

(14) Applications must be lodged on the relevant form and submitted with all relevant documentation, including where necessary, guarantor details.

(15) All applicants for student loans are required to provide demonstrated evidence of their ability to repay the loan, for example, bank statements and income statements and/or pay slips, and their suggested repayment schedule.

(16) All applications for a student loan must be assessed by the Student Financial Assistance Officer or an appropriate delegate to:

- a. determine their eligibility;
- b. discuss capacity to pay;
- c. establish appropriate guarantors; and
- d. repayment schedule.

(17) Postgraduate loans are approved subject to available, capped funding limits.

Part G - Guarantors

(18) All guarantors must:

- a. be Australian Citizens or Permanent Residents; and

b. reside in Australia.

(19) The guarantor has the financial responsibility of meeting the debt should a default occur. The guarantor will normally be a parent, guardian, family member, or an individual close to the borrower who has known the borrower for no less than two years. No internal or external organisation can go as guarantor.

(20) No staff member in Student Administration Services or in Finance & Business Services will stand as guarantor.

(21) No person who has previously or are currently involved in bankruptcy proceedings will be accepted as a guarantor for a Student Loan.

(22) The Director, Student Administration Services (or their delegate) may waive the requirement of a guarantor for loans of up to a maximum of $800 where a successful history of repayment can be demonstrated.

Part H - Approval

(23) Loan applications are submitted for approval to the Student Financial Assistance Officer who is authorised to approve loans up to $1500.

(24) The sum applied for must not be greater than that which meets a student's current need.

Part I - Deposit of Loan Funds into Student's Bank Accounts.

(25) Level One Loans (Emergency Loans) will be issued in cash by the Student Financial Assistance Officer or delegated custodians.

(26) All Loans funds for level two, three, four, five, six and seven will be issued to the student via a deposit into an Australian bank account which the student has nominated.

(27) Up to two working days for processing is expected before funds can be deposited in a student's bank account.

(28) All funds will be deposited into student accounts as cleared funds (i.e. no waiting period).

Part J - Loan Repayments

(29) Level One loans (Emergency Loans) are invoiced at the time of interview and an invoice is issued with the funds to the student by the Student Financial Assistance Officer. These loans must be paid within 30 days of the date the invoice is issued.

(30) Loan Repayments for level two, three, four, five, six and seven loans are invoiced by the Financial and Business Services on a monthly payment basis; however students may elect to make weekly/fortnightly payments. Details of the repayments are listed within the loan schedule.

(31) Students who fail to pay off a previous loan in the agreed repayment schedule time period and have been placed on student sanctions for more than six months will only be eligible to apply for a Level Two loan (following the repayment of the outstanding monies).

a. Once the Level Two loan has been repaid in accordance with the repayment schedule, the student can apply for a higher level loan.

(32) Loans are repayable in full upon formal withdrawal from an enrolled course or an absence of leave.

(33) Students who are completing their studies at the end of the Session must repay their loan in full by the end of session in order to graduate. If not, the student will be placed on student sanctions.

Part K - Renegotiation of Existing Loans

(34) In circumstances of hardship, where a student is unable to meet his or her obligations under the repayment schedule of their existing loan agreement, the University may extend the loan period or alter the repayment terms. This will only be possible if a student makes a formal application for renegotiation and only if their guarantor gives approval to change the repayment schedule.

(35) Applications to renegotiate an existing loan more than twice must be approved by the Director, Student Administration Services (or their delegate).

(36) In the case of a Level One Emergency Loan an extension of payment will only be granted in extreme circumstance. The Student Financial Assistance Officer may approve an extension for the repayment of a Level One Emergency Loan for a maximum of 30 days only.

(37) All applicants who apply for a renegotiation of an existing Level One Loan (Emergency Loan) and Levels Two, Three, Four, Five and Six renegotiations must be assessed by the Student Financial Assistance Officer.

Part L - Renegotiated Loans

(38) In special circumstances students may elect to negotiate to top up their existing loan. All policies and procedures for applying for a second loan are the same as for the initial loan.

(39) A student may re-borrow up to their current level loan. For example: If they have taken out a loan for $500 and have repaid $300, they may take out another loan for $200.

(40) The repayment schedule of the second loan will be determined by the Student Financial Assistance Officer after discussion with the student.

Part M - Overdue Loans

(41) Students who fail to meet their loan obligations will be subject to student sanction in accordance with the Rules - Fees, Charges and Sanctions (see Part Q.).

(42) Students who have been placed on sanctions for the first time for not meeting their loan repayment schedule may be able to renegotiate their loan.

(43) Students who have an outstanding loan of more than three months will need to pay two scheduled repayments up to a maximum of $100 before a renegotiation is approved and sanctions are lifted.

(44) For students placed on student sanctions more than once and/or who have made no obvious attempt to repay their loan, the Student Financial Assistance Officer may place additional conditions on a renegotiation, or may refuse the renegotiation.

(45) Where a student is placed on sanctions for not meeting their loan repayment and a renegotiation is not approved, they will remain on sanctions until the outstanding debt is repaid to the University.

(46) A student has the right to appeal a decision made by a Student Financial Assistance Officer to the Director, Student Administration Services (refer to Part S - Appeals).

Part N - Student Sanctions

(47) Student sanctions will be imposed by the Director, Student Administration Services following consultations with appropriate staff if a student defaults on loan repayments and does not make renegotiation arrangements with the Student Financial Assistance Officer. In such a case, he or she will be subject to the following student sanctions:

- a. withholding of approval to enrol;
- b. withholding of Notification of Assessment;
- c. non-issue of a academic transcript;
- d. loss of access to computing services;
- e. withdrawal of library borrowing privileges.

(48) For procedural information, refer to the Rules - Fees, Charges and Sanctions.

Part O - Legal Action

(49) If a student still defaults on a loan after being placed on student sanctions, recovery of the loan against the guarantor will be undertaken by due legal process.

(50) An administrative charge will be made, and legal costs may be payable.

Part P - Appeals

(51) Students who have applied unsuccessfully for a loan may have their application reviewed by the Director, Student Administration Services.

(52) The request must be in writing and include a statement of the grounds for the appeal. The Director, Student Administration Services' decision is final.
