

Rules Relating to Awards - Rule 3 - Coursework Awards - Student Assessment and Examinations

Section 1 - Definitions

(1) For the purposes of this Rule, the following definitions apply:

- a. Census Date means the date prescribed by the University in accordance with the Higher Education Support Act 2003 after which a student's enrolment is taken to be finalised. This date will be published on the University's website for each study period. Students who withdraw from a unit after Census Date will incur a financial penalty and may incur an academic penalty.
- b. Withdrawal Without Fail Date means the date prescribed by the University after which a student's withdrawal from a unit will result in a Fail grade. This date will be published on the University's website for each study period and will be based on Monday of Week 9 for Sessions (15 week teaching periods) and Monday of Week 5 for Study Periods (7 week teaching periods). Students who withdraw from a unit after the Withdrawal Without Fail Date will incur a financial and academic penalty.

Section 2 - Assessment Information in Unit Information Guides

(2) The unit assessor during the first two weeks of each study period shall make available to all students enrolled in that unit and shall lodge with the Library a Unit Information Guide which shall contain details as stipulated in the Unit Statements Policy.

(3) The Unit Information Guide shall normally include at least the following information about student assessment:

- a. a description of each assessment task, including information such as length and format;
- b. the relation of each assessment task to the Unit Learning Outcomes;
- c. the weighting of each assessment task towards the final grade;
- d. whether a pass in the unit requires an overall mark of 50 per cent, or whether there are components of the assessment which must be completed at a specified level for the unit to be completed satisfactorily;
- e. identification of any assessment task that must be completed to pass the unit but which does not count towards the final grade;
- f. due dates for submission or completion of each assessment task and penalties which may be applied for late submission;
- g. the mode of grading [that is, whether graded or ungraded - see clause (60)];
- h. a statement noting the relationship between assessment and desired Graduate Attributes.

Section 3 - Assessment Provision for Students with Disabilities

(4) This Rule refers to the conditions under which variations to assessment tasks or requirements may be made to accommodate the needs of students with disabilities. Such variations may include, for example, the method of completing assignments or recording answers, a lengthening of the time taken over a test or examination, the venue for tests or an examination, the provision of sound amplification or of large print for test or examination papers, and the provision of particular furniture requirements. The onus is on a student with a disability who wishes to seek variations to assessment tasks or requirements to bring this matter to the attention of the Disabilities Liaison Officer in accordance with the University's Reasonable Adjustments for Students with Disabilities Policy.

(5) Procedures for students registered under the Reasonable Adjustments for Students with a Disability Policy as having a disability shall be those specified in that Policy. Once a determination is made under the Policy concerning variations to assessment tasks or requirements for a student with a disability, these variations shall be available throughout the period of enrolment unless changed in accordance with the Policy.

(6) All students with disabilities who are not registered under the Policy and who seek accommodation for a disability must contact the Disabilities Liaison Officer. An application for a special examination or special consideration in a unit does not relieve the student of this onus.

Section 4 - Grounds for Special Consideration

(7) Requests for special consideration in relation to assessment tasks shall only be considered on the following grounds: health (including impacts of religious fasting); compassionate circumstances; religious observances or celebrations; serious unforeseen personal events; selection in State, national or international sporting or cultural events; rendering genuine and unforeseen emergency service in a professional or voluntary capacity; or rendering any service (including undertaking training) in the Defence Reserves. Onshore international students must have a Confirmation of Enrolment (COE) for a University course which remains valid for the period of the request.

(8) For consideration on health grounds, the following information in relation to a student's condition shall be required from a registered health practitioner:

- a. the date or dates on which the student was examined; and
- b. a specific statement of the practitioner's opinion of the effect of the complaint or treatment on the student's ability to complete the assessment task. Requests that do not contain this information will not be considered. The Unit Assessor, or Course Coordinator, as appropriate under Section 5 - , may, with written permission by the student, seek further clarification from the relevant registered health practitioner concerning the extent to which a complaint or treatment may affect the student's ability to complete the assessment task. A registered health practitioner means a health practitioner registered as a provider under Medicare or a private health fund, together with such other health practitioners as the University may determine from time to time.

(9) For consideration on grounds of compassionate circumstances or serious unforeseen personal events, a student shall provide factual details of the circumstances or events, together with such corroborative evidence as may support the student's application. In this context "serious unforeseen personal events" refer normally to events which are outside the student's control to prevent or overcome.

(10) For consideration on grounds of selection in State, national or international sporting or cultural events, or religious observances or celebrations, a student shall provide a statement signed by an authorised officer of the appropriate organisation which validates a conflict with the University's timetable.

(11) For consideration on grounds of rendering genuine and unforeseen emergency service in a professional or voluntary capacity, or rendering any service (including undertaking training) in the Defence Reserves, a student shall provide a statement signed by an authorised officer of the appropriate organisation which details the nature of the service rendered, and validates a conflict with the University's timetable.

(12) Misreading the advised due date for any assessment task including misreading the exam timetable, as officially advised by the University, is not grounds for special consideration. Official advice only includes information provided in Unit Information Guides, on University websites and formal written correspondence.

Section 5 - Types of Special Consideration

Request for Extensions of Assessment Tasks

(13) Students wishing to request Special Consideration to extend the due date of an assessment task must submit a Request for Special Consideration form via their MyEnrolment page as early as possible and prior to the original due date for that assessment task, along with any accompanying documents, such as medical certificates.

(14) Requests to extend the due date of an assessment task on the grounds of:

- a. selection in State, national or international sporting, educational or cultural events, or religious observances or celebrations, must be submitted one month prior to the event taking place.
- b. of health, compassionate circumstances, serious unforeseen personal events, rendering genuine and unforeseen emergency service in a professional or voluntary capacity, or rendering any service (including undertaking training) in the Defence Reserves, must be submitted as soon as possible before the due date of the assessment.

(15) Student Administration Services will review submitted requests including any documentation and determine whether and to what extent Special Consideration applies, based on the definitions above and the thresholds set from time to time by the Pro Vice Chancellor (Academic Quality) and published on the University's website.

(16) Student Administration Services will notify the student and the relevant Unit Assessor of the outcome of each request within five working days, unless the relevant Associate Dean (Education) approves a later notification. If a student disagrees with an outcome, they should contact their Unit Assessor in the first instance.

(17) If a student applies for Special Consideration in more than one unit concurrently, Student Administration Services will liaise with the Course Coordinators and all relevant Unit Assessors.

(18) If an extension is granted beyond the due date of the finalisation of grades for the session or study period, the student shall receive an interim grade of Incomplete.

Request for Special Consideration for an end-of-unit examination

(19) Students wishing to request Special Consideration in relation to an end-of-unit examination that has not yet occurred must submit a Request for Special Consideration form via their MyEnrolment page as early as possible and prior to start time of the examination, along with any accompanying documents, such as medical certificates.

(20) Requests to extend the due date of an assessment task on the grounds of:

- b. of health, compassionate circumstances, serious unforeseen personal events, rendering genuine and unforeseen emergency service in a professional or voluntary capacity, or rendering any service (including undertaking training) in the Defence Reserves, must be submitted as soon as possible before the due date of the examination.

(21) Student Administration Services will review submitted requests including any documentation and determine whether and to what extent Special Consideration applies, based on the definitions above and the thresholds set from time to time by the Pro Vice Chancellor (Academic Quality) and published on the University's website.

(22) Student Administration Services will notify the student and the relevant Unit Assessor of the outcome of each request within five working days, unless the relevant Associate Dean (Education) approves a later notification. If a student disagrees with an outcome, they should contact their Unit Assessor in the first instance.

(23) If a student applies for Special Consideration in more than one unit concurrently, Student Administration Services will liaise with the Course Coordinators and all relevant Unit Assessors.

(24) Where a student has been granted special consideration in relation to an end-of-unit examination, the student may choose to:

- a. sit the end-of-unit examination and be considered under the provision in clause (26); or
- b. not sit the end-of-unit examination and be granted a special examination.

(25) Where a student has been granted a special examination, an interim grade of Special Examination shall be entered on the student's record and the Director, Student Administration Services will be notified.

Request for Special Consideration for a completed assessment task

(26) Students wishing to request Special Consideration for a completed assessment task, including an end-of-unit examination must submit a Request for Special Consideration form via their MyEnrolment page no later than two working days after the due date of the assessment task or the scheduled date of the examination, along with any accompanying documents, such as medical certificates. The relevant Course Coordinator may approve a later date for submission of an application if exceptional circumstances can be demonstrated by the student.

(27) Student Administration Services will notify the relevant Unit Assessor of any requests.

(28) The Unit Assessor shall retain all requests until the time of the determination of final grades for the unit. At that time, the Unit Assessor, taking into account the student's application, and, after consultation with any other staff member responsible for the assessment task related to the application, shall either decide the student's final grade or, in exceptional circumstances, recommend to the Course Coordinator that the student be granted further assessment prior to determination of the final grade. The Course Coordinator shall ensure that all applications are retained by the Faculty or College for a period of one year.

(29) If a student applies for Special Consideration in more than one unit concurrently, Student Administration Services will liaise with the Course Coordinator and all relevant Unit Assessors.

Section 6 - Examination and Special Examination Periods

(30) Examination periods (including special examination periods) shall be those periods as determined by the Vice Chancellor.

- a. A student who wishes to obtain a change of examination venue less than three weeks prior to the commencement of an examination period shall be required to pay the non-refundable fee as outlined in Rules -

Fees, Charges and Sanctions.

(33) Where special consideration is granted prior to an examination on the basis of religious observances, a student will be examined within the immediate examination period, using the same examination materials as for the standard examination (where necessary) so long as the student:

- b. signs a statutory declaration declaring:
 - i. that they will not share the contents of the examination with other students (when sitting before the general cohort); or
 - ii. that other students have not shared the contents of the examination with them (when sitting after the general cohort).

(34) In the case of clause (33), the Unit Assessor will assess exam results to ensure no odd patterns of results are detected.

(35) Students enrolled internally are required to return to the University to sit an examination, unless prior arrangements for an alternative venue have been approved in writing by the Director, Student Administration Services. International students may only apply for an alternative venue under compassionate and compelling circumstances.

(36) Except for the case of clause (33), in any examination period where a unit has either Special Examinations or Supplementary Assessment examinations, the unit shall normally have an examination paper that is different, but of an equivalent standard, to the examination previously set.

Section 7 - Conduct of Examinations

Exception: Electronic dictionaries are not permitted under any circumstances. It is immaterial that the subject matter of the material is not one to which the examination relates. (45) Students shall bring into the examination room their student identification card or any other photo identification card.

(46) A student for an examination shall, upon entering an examination room, proceed without delay to the place the student is directed to occupy for that examination by a supervisor or by notice or other means, and shall not leave that place except with the permission or by the direction of a supervisor. A supervisor may at any time direct a student to leave any such place and to occupy another place specified by the supervisor, and a student shall without delay comply with any such direction.

(47) A student shall comply with all directions to students set forth on a writing book or other examination material supplied or set out on any notice displayed in the examination room, and shall without delay comply with directions given by a supervisor. A supervisor need not give a student a reason for any direction or requirements given or made to the student.

(48) All examinations must be answered during the examination session in the student's own handwriting, unless alternative arrangements have been made through registration and consultation with the Disability Liaison Officer.

(49) A student shall not remove from the examination room any worked script or paper provided for use during the course of the examination, or other material the property of the University unless permitted by the supervisor.

A supervisor shall have and may exercise all such powers as are reasonably necessary to ensure the proper and efficient conduct of the examination.

(53) If a person who is required by a supervisor to leave the examination room fails to do so forthwith, the permission given to be on the premises of which the examination room forms part shall be deemed to be withdrawn and the person may be dealt with accordingly.

(54) A student of the University who commits a breach of any part contained within Section 7 - shall be guilty of misconduct and dealt with in accordance with Section 18 - and Section 19 - . (56) A person, whether a student or not, shall not do anything intended to assist any other person sitting for an examination to cheat or otherwise defeat the purposes of the examination.
